Getting to the Core

Each year the SEDA Board makes an effort to make sure that our members have access to a great selection of educational opportunities. That is, after all, one of the main functions of our club - to educate! We typically have clinics for horses and riders, but in March, SEDA members had the opportunity to focus solely on being better riders.

Kerrie Ann Frey from Modern Pilates Training presided over our first Pilates Night. She is a certified Pilates instructor with eleven years' experience in fitness, including being founder of Fit Mom USA, the New Orleans area's first pre- and post-natal exercise program. Her Pilates instruction is grounded in strength, flexibility, and balance throughout the body... and those who attended can attest that it was quite a workout! (It's NOT as easy as it looks.)

According to Kerrie Ann, Pilates specifically addresses what many riders have issues with: body awareness or proprioception; core strength and stability, flexibility in the hips and hamstrings; stability in the shoulder girdle; proper alignment and correct posture. She had a handout for everyone which highlighted the benefits of Pilates exercises for these areas where many riders have problems.

Following a brief explanation of the purpose of Pilates and the exercises, participants got to work. Kerrie Ann demonstrated and corrected technique as we practiced the different ways to strengthen our core and lengthen our muscles. While it takes more than one class to develop muscle and flexibility, it was a great introduction to the benefits of Pilates for riders.

The event was held at Bridles and Britches - they were extremely generous hosts and it turned out to be a great venue for our group of participants. Socializing, wine, cheese, and shopping followed the workout session - that combination made for a near-perfect night!

If there is enough interest in a repeating the course, SEDA may offer it again. Contact Leslie Morris if you are interested in a future date. ♣

WHAT'S UP?

Fun for the (Mostly) Mounted

By Nicole Landreneau, Off Course editor

May? Already? I can't figure out if I'm losing my mind, stuck in a time warp, or just getting old. Whatever the case, it seems I'm changing the pages on the calendar quicker than my socks! (Figuratively speaking...I hope.)

There's so much to report in this issue, it's truly remarkable. It seems that there has been a horse show or related activity nearly every weekend for the past couple of months. I was fortunate to attend most of them for a little while, to watch and get some photos - it's fun going to these shows and seeing what's up with everyone. At the same time, it's somewhat depressing: I'd like to show again.

As I mentioned last time, I've begun my hunt for the 'next horse'. It started off with a quick trip to Arizona and the Scottsdale Arabian Show. That was quite an experience! I dragged my trainer, Leslie Morris, along and we arrived to perfect weather. The size of the event was mind-boggling. Over 2400 horses in one place showing in nearly every discipline you can imagine. At the same time. Over 300 vendors selling horse-related goods (oh darn - can you say 'lots of shopping?'). And some of the most extravagant barn displays I've ever seen - complete with landscaping, life-sized sculptures, big screen TVs and refreshments. There was lots of beautiful horseflesh, but nothing that suited me for where I'm at right now. But, that's OK! It was fun and I'm glad I was finally able to go. And happily, the GPS managed to keep us from getting lost. The first two days, anyway ... until it seized up and we spent the better part of a morning laughing hysterically and driving in circles. In the end, it's all good, we made it back...

I did manage to look at and try a few horses closer to home, too, but for one reason or another, they just haven't worked out. So, I'm still looking and there are other options on the horizon. I don't know when or where it will find me, but I'm certain that it will.

For those of you who already have a beast to ride, the pages of this issue chronicle what you've been up to. Barn Dirt is full of tales you'll enjoy reading. Show results abound. There's also a great recap of the spring Fleur de Leap. That was a fabulous weekend - if you didn't make it, you really missed a good time. We can't say enough to thank our volunteers who helped out at the event, either. It takes a tremendous amount of manpower to run a horse trials - we couldn't do it without you! There's another coming in fall, so be sure to turn out for that one either to compete or volunteer.

For the unmounted, SEDA held its first Pilates Night. It really was a fun experience, and we learned a lot. Read all about it on the front page...and let us know if you'd be interested in a repeat. I know I would be!

Until next time, happy reading and happy riding! ♣

Barn Dirt

As raked by Judi Dauterive

How many of us were able to share in the bounty that was the Treasure Hunt in Gulfport? It's not often a slice of good fortune such as that comes our way. A huge tack shop burned down and all the salvaged goods went to Treasure Hunt. Initially all the merchandise was 50% off retail and as the word spread the horse people descended like a plague of ravenous locusts. The whole back wall of the store was lined with boxes of boots - Ariat, Sergio Grasso, Dublin, Treadstep - you name it, they had it! It was the mother lode and I felt like a kid in a candy store, not knowing which aisle to go to next. Bins and bins of bridles, bits, girths, doodads and whatnots, rack upon rack of show clothes. Granted it all smelled a bit like barbecue, but nothing I can't live with at those prices. After a few weeks, the merchandise was 80% off. Back everyone went. A bit picked over at this point, but still plenty of selection. Pikeur and Kentucky full seats came home - a gorgeous Cliff Barnsby leather/sheepskin girth - $20! A Theo Sommer double bridle for $70, Stubben for $35. One visit alone found Margaret Haskins, Marie Cobb, Vicki Macgowan, Joanna Leake, Andy Jones, Al Pastuszek, and Lacey Salinas ferreting eagerly through the racks. Elizabeth Cummins and Alex Varisco got their fair share, too. Chrissy West finally broke down and went after reading everyone's triumphant postings on Facebook. I couldn't help myself and went back when it was 90% off and scarfed up some more of the leftovers. My car and house smell like Smoky Joe's Super Smoky Smoke House Bar B Q, but I'm loving it! Hmm, I feel hungry, wonder why...

Jamie and Logan Barowka recently returned from the perfect dream vacation in Portugal. They spent 8 days just outside Lisbon riding Lusitano stallions at Morgado Lusitano. They trained with Rodrigo Matos and Paulo Sergio, both principal riders of Escola Portuguesa d Arte Equestre which is similar to the Spanish Riding School of Vienna. With the benefit of two lessons a day with these fabulous instructors, they were able to do upper level dressage movements.

The highlight for Jamie was when Logan took a lesson on Hercules, a 23 year old Lusitano stallion schoolmaster. Under Rodrigo's skilled tutelage Logan was able to do walk to canter transitions followed by canter half pass with a flying change at the wall. Moments later she was doing 3 tempis down the quarter line. Jamie was so amazed she could barely pick her jaw up off the floor or stem the tidal flow of blubbery mommy tears that afflict us all when our offspring do

Although Hercules was all that and a bag of alfalfa cubes, Logan's heart was captured by a Haflinger stallion called Pascual. While on board, Logan was able to learn a boatload of theory and the importance of position.

Jamie's got skills, too. She rode Que Fito, a stallion trained for bull fighting. Can you say SENSITIVE? By the end of her lesson she was able to both canter in place and perform a canter pirouette. She was also able to ride Ha Choque, Rodrigo's horse from the Royal Portugese School. Rodrigo and Ha Choque regularly wow audiences at the school with their airs above the ground and have even performed for the Queen of England.

Jamie Barowka and Que Fito in Portugal.

Deep Pockets celebrates 30 years with carrot cake, family (Leslie Morris) and friends (Charlotte Miller-Tarver)!

Jamie was lucky enough to practice passage on this lovely horse and actually performed a levade – yes on purpose! Rodrigo Matos will be offering a dressage clinic at Oak Hill Ranch on June 11-12, 2011. For more information, contact Jamie at 504 615 4872.

On March 20th, Leslie Morris' horse, Deep Pockets, celebrated his 30th birthday. Charlotte Miller-Tarver was the hostess with the mostess for his crawfish boil/birthday party. He blew out the candles on his carrot cake and even wore a party hat or two and thoroughly enjoyed all the attention and treats heaped upon him by the party guests.

Camille Coleman will have the summer of her dreams this year. She has been awarded the Virginia Tech Sporthorse Breeding Internship based at the Middleburg Agricultural Research and Extension (MARE) in Middleburg, VA. The 420 acre facility is located in the heart of northern VA's hunt country. The program takes applicants from all over the world and the USA but only accepts 4 interns. Intern students, among other things, prepare and exhibit youngstock bred by VA Tech is USDF Sporthorse Breeding and USEA Future Event Horse classes. They also develop proficiency in breeding stock selection, conformation and gait evaluation and pedigree analysis. Camille currently attends the University of Maryland and is completing her Junior year majoring in Animal Science with hopes of attending vet school.

Emily Embree and equine partners Crescent City Classic and Buttercream were at Meadow Creek recently. Emily was tackling her first Prelim on Classic. He's already qualified at Training level for Area 3 Championships in May and AECs in September. Strolling past the vendors, she noticed that Hit Air Vest distributor was allowing test rides in his product. Air vests are like life jackets, they inflate when you part ways with your mount, thereby cushioning the inevitable body to ground interface. Being her first Prelim, Emily thought "what could it hurt?" Ah...the darn thing deployed at the first fence leaving Emily in a bit of a bind. Looking and feeling like the Sta-Puffed Marshmallow Man, Emily was riding blind. The air filled neck collar was pushing her helmet down over her eyes. She had to sit back and basically trust to luck and her horse. Officials finally pulled her over six fences from home and allowed her to remove her impediment. After that she was golden and romped to the finish line. She can't wait for Holly Hill where she might actually get to see the fences.

Her other mount, Greta Peterson's Buttercream was a superstar in the Novice division, coming in 3rd overall. She is also qualified for Area 3 Championships.

The USDF Connection magazine recently had a handy dandy article on 50 ways to be eliminated from a recognized dressage show. They only listed the 50 most common ways to be ejected from the arena which means...there's a plethora of pitfalls and dangers hitherto undisclosed! In fact, after reading the article, it appears you'd be doing well just to stay IN the competition, let alone win a ribbon! Last man standing should get everything. With an informed grip on this rather dire reality, a few SEDA members bravely put on their big girl panties and went to the Blue Angel show in Pensacola.

What a blast that was! The 2 Dutch Ranch team consisted of Kalie Beckers and Bienvenue ZSH, Cameron Dauterive and Don Giovanni (competitors), Sophia Wijnbergen-Lusthuis (trainer), Gerlinde Beckers,

Spring Fleur de Leap a Great Success

By Elizabeth Cummins, SEDA Eventing Chair

While several members of SEDA's dressage community were busy earning qualifying scores in Pensacola, the "eventers" of our club were happily in pursuit of their own scores at Fleur de Leap, held at Lagniappe Farms (owned by Hildey McCarthy - a loyal SEDA member and XC supporter). Despite the call for turbulent weather and tornadoes on Friday, SEDA's family of eventers braved the worst to prepare for a test of their skills - a combination of dressage, stadium, and for many, an open field of cross-country jumps.

Saturday began with perfect horseshow weather: breezy and cool under a halo of sunshine...perfect temps for formal dressage attire, if one aspired to such lofty pursuits! The show schedule boasted a full morning docket for our judge, Leslie Morris, who tirelessly analyzed test after test...even the four "little bitties" who rode their first dressage test ever, thanks to SEDA's new "Beginner Walk-Option to Trot."

Volunteers were aplenty to aid in jump course changes, to fix fly-away tents, and to ensure riders were at their respective gates and ready to show. We applaud our volunteers! We simply could not do this event without them!

By lunchtime, most were munching hot dogs with famous "Varisco chili" at the concession run by Highlands 4-H Horse Club and watching the procession of stadium jumping rounds from 'Preliminary' to 'Pre-Amoeba' level. Several youth participants of the combined test portion of Fleur de Leap were thrilled with their victories, and after accepting their medallions, urged their mounts into a victory gallop to celebrate.

On this note, I must pause...I am proud that our club promotes the skill and professionalism of horses/riders at the higher levels of 'Training' and 'Preliminary', but I am also thankful that our club allows for the creation of lower levels like Amoeba (18" xrails) and Tadpole (2'). It boosts the confidence of our younger riders as well as gives a great place to start for less-experienced adults and for those with green horses.

Perhaps this is why Fleur de Leap has become such a success within our club - it offers challenges AND affords schooling opportunities to our diverse SEDA riding community to make us all competent riders and better sportsmen. When I think of the work it takes to put on a show like this, I try to remember that "this" is why we do it! We work together to be a part of something truly great and memorable.

After a long day of showing, participants of the horse trials portion of Fleur de Leap retired to prepare for the finale on Sunday; afterall, if you're an eventer, the real fun starts at the end, right? The cross-country course was indeed inviting in the glow of the early Sunday morn - green grass, spacious oaks, and rolling countryside - and thankfully, volunteers rolled in with coffee in tow, ready to man their stations at the jumps. Once the show was underway, riders happily cheered each other on and congratulated each other at the finish line, in true "eventer" fashion.

Fleur de Leap April 2011 was a success. With 50+ horses competing, our numbers are back on track (since 2009), and the show has proven to be a dependable source of income for the club since its inception. We welcomed Tally-Ho Stables (Bebe Brown) this time, and we thank our 'usual' crowd of local barns and trainers for supporting Fleur de Leap. We challenge others who are interested to come out in September to join in the fun and camaraderie! ✦

A Note of Thanks...

I want to express my most sincere appreciation to the Board of SEDA, Elizabeth Cummins, Eventing Chair, and all other SEDA members in attendance for the truly well run schooling horse trials. Weather was great, people were cordial and friendly, officials were informative and accommodating, competition was exciting!! Personally, I have not been able to attend in the recent past due to scheduling conflicts but, I assure you, will make every effort in the future to do so. I was amazed by the willingness of the parents, grandparents, friends to jump in and help when asked. This was exemplary by them but shows just how well you take care of your membership. I know this can be a thankless job but wanted to let you know my feelings. THANK YOU!

Yours Truly,
Billy Appel

Needless to say I am rather pleased by that development. The girls joined forces with Regina Milliken-Lewis and Katherine Coleman for the team competition and came in second - beaten by just one point. The highlight of the 2 Dutch day was when Cameron's hermit crab "Snack Size" won the hermit crab races at Crab's on Pensacola Beach. He was made an honorary member of the team and we toasted him with "Voodoo Buckets" - a blend of several rums and fruit juice served in a...you guessed it... bucket!

Team Hornbeak consisting of Anne, Elaine Harmon, Bernadette Murray-Fertel (competitors) and Bonnie Ferrell (team "mom"/gopher) also posted some excellent scores, but high score of the competition went to Regina Milliken-

Lewis from Oakhill Ranch and Riga who not only didn't get eliminated (bonus) but racked up a whopping 84.643%!! Seeing her test sheet was like touching the Shroud of Turin. It was a near religious experience. Needless to say she went home with a smile on her face and a spring in her step.

So as the blingy whip of fate pops the hairy rump of destiny and the full seat Pikeurs of chance depart the saddle of fortune, I shall leave you to ponder the deeper meaning of it all.

Send me the dirt.

Rodrigo Matos is a principal rider of the esteemed Escola Portuguesa d'Arte Equestre (The Portuguese version of the Spanish Riding School of Vienna). He is also the head instructor of Morgado Lusitano, an equestrian training and vacation facility in Lisbon. This is where his training began under Mr. Nuno Palma. He currently trains under Maestro Dr. Filipe Figueiredo (Graciosa) and works daily with stallions from the Alter Real stud farm. These stallions are used in the equestrian exhibits at the Palacio National, and shown at the highest levels. Rodrigo is proficient at teaching and riding maneuvers such as the Piaffe, Passage and Long-reins-in-hand. He also performs the most demanding high school airs, including the Capriole, Levade and Corvetta. During these shows Rodrigo also works with the other Picadores as part of a ten rider Quadrille. At Morgado Lusitano, Rodrigo is responsible for the training of up to 35 horses per day as well as assistant trainers and student trainees. In addition to his work in Portugal, Rodrigo also travels worldwide offering classical horsemanship clinics.

Pony Club Rallies Around Fun

By Lena Coleman

For the first time since Katrina ripped through Lagniappe Equestrian Center toppling trees and damaging the cross country course, the Deep South Region Pony Clubs were able to add a training division to their horse trials. The final step to add a training division turned out to be “easy” according to one of the pony club dads. Cross Country Course organizers David Roberts and Bob Coleman searched through the woods, found the jumps, pulled them out and repaired them. Once the jumps were in place, the Pony Clubbers and their parents had a clean-up day and clipped branches, mowed the lanes and filled holes. It was all in an effort to provide an opportunity for the Region’s Pony Clubbers to compete in a Regional Eventing Rally with the hopes of qualifying to attend the USPC National Championships in Eventing held at the Lexington Horse Park in Kentucky, home of the Rolex 4-Star Horse Trials.

For three SEDA members, the hopes to ride at Championships is becoming a reality. Jacob Roberts on his horse, Maximus, met the qualifying requirements in the Novice Division. Claudia Hemb on Ricky and Izzy Hemb on Walter both qualified in the Beginner Novice Division. In addition, Izzy Hemb had the highest dressage score for the entire rally at 29.5, winning a beaded browband donated by SEDA’s Junior/Young Rider Chair, Paula Gregory. Walter also won the “Best Conditioned Horse” award.

This year, also for the first time, the Region opened the competition up to non-Pony Clubbers as a fundraiser for the Region to offset the cost of the event. The turnout was so successful that the Region may expand its efforts next year to include more classes.

Special thanks must be extended to Hildy McCarthy and Lagniappe Equestrian Center for their hospitality and for allowing SEDA to use her beautiful facility for the cross country course. Events like this would not be possible without such generosity!

The United States Pony Clubs is a non-profit organization that teaches horse management and riding skills to members on both horses and ponies. Members are able to compete as a team in many different disciplines with teams from all over the Region.

Are You Getting Emails from SEDA?

SEDA frequently distributes via email information we feel would be beneficial to our members. While we make every effort to maintain an updated email list, many times these messages are rejected.

Here are some tips if you don't think you're getting the message:

- check your junk mail
- add offcoursenews@hotmail.com to your white list and/or address book
- contact Nicole at offcoursenews@hotmail.com so she can make sure your correct email address is on file
- notify Nicole at offcoursenews@hotmail.com if your email address changes.

New Dressage Rule Changes

The USEF Executive Committee recently approved a round of changes, effective immediately, to multiple dressage rules that represent significant changes regarding judging and scoring for dressage. Please take the time to familiarize yourself with these changes by reviewing the 2011 Supplement to the Hard Copy Rulebook.

For additional information please contact Jeannie Putney, National Director of Dressage at (859) 225-6918 or jputney@usef.org. ♣

FEI "I" 4* Judge and Lifetime Trainer Lilo Fore Signed for USDF Adult Clinic Series

The United States Dressage Federation (USDF) announced the signing of FEI "I" 4* judge and popular trainer Lilo Fore as the clinician for the USDF Adult Clinic Series. This series will consist of nine clinics over the next two years beginning in the fall of 2011 in Regions 4 and 8.

Lilo Fore is an FEI "I" Judge and began her judging career in 1974. In addition to judging, she owns a successful dressage training facility located in Santa Rosa, CA, and helped to develop the USDF Instructor Certification Program. Lilo's students have gone on to become successful professionals and horses bred by her have earned Grand Champion and Champion awards in breed shows in both the US and Canada. Throughout her career, Lilo has remained involved in many educational projects including hosting clinics all over the US and South America.

"Lilo has been so involved with our Instructor Certification program and is so well-respected and liked as an instructor and trainer, she was a perfect fit for the adult clinic series," stated USDF Director of Marketing Linda Schultz.

Lilo was a featured presenter at the 2010 Adequan/USDF National Symposium and is the 'voice of instruction' on the newest edition of USDF's On the Levels video, soon to be released. "Her involvement in the clinics series completes the package. Lilo will share her knowledge with instructors, judges, amateurs and the sport horse community," stated Kathie Robertson, USDF Education Program Senior Coordinator.

For more information about the USDF Adult Clinic Series, or to find specific dates and locations for the series (available after May 1, 2011), visit the USDF Web site or contact the USDF office. ♣

FEI Updates Prohibited Substance List for Horses Competing in FEI Disciplines

Approved at the FEI General Assembly in Taipei last November, the 2011 FEI Equine Prohibited Substance List for horses competing in FEI classes became effective April 4, 2011. It is important for all who compete in the FEI disciplines to become familiar with the parameters laid out by the FEI Clean Sport Initiative.

The lists of Controlled and Banned substances are available at www.feicleansport.org. The searchable FEI Equine Prohibited Substances Database can be found here. Until June 4, 2011, the 2011 list will show all Prohibited Substances that have been added or removed from the 2010 List and Database.

The FEI has also created applications for the iPhone and other smart phones, designed to show the latest changes to the rules as well as offer updates when any substances are added or removed.

Some of the most important changes affecting USEF members competing in FEI classes have been summarized below by USEF Drugs & Medications Chief Administrator, Dr. Stephen Schumacher:

Altrenogest (Regumate®) - has been moved from the Banned list to the Controlled Medications list for stallions and geldings. (This is a permitted substance in mares if a FEI medication form is filed.)

Medroxyprogesterone, Cyclophenil, Deslorelin and Fulvestrant - all anti-estrogenic or progestogen substances that have been added to the Controlled Medications list and were previously not listed.

Acetazolamide - was not listed previously, and has now been added to the Controlled Medications list.

Levomethadone - this is a different version of a substance already on the Controlled Medications list (methadone).

Ziconotide - has been specifically added to the Banned list.

USEF members are reminded to familiarize themselves with the changes brought about by the FEI Clean Sport Initiative, and to review all lists carefully before treating any horses that may compete in an FEI competition in 2011, and in any FEI discipline competition in the 2012 competition season which begins December 1, 2011.

USRider Urges Traveling Equestrians to Carry Two Spare Tires

The side of the road is a dangerous place to be, especially when you have horses on board. As a conscientious horse owner, you should try to minimize that time. One way to do that, according to Bill Riss, managing member of USRider, a roadside assistance plan, is to carry not one, but two spare tires when trailering your animals.

Statistics show that tire failure is the most common cause of roadside disablements. Riss added, "In USRider's ten years of providing service to our members, we have seen a trend of a high incidence of disablements where replacement of two tires on the same side of a trailer was required, either due to encountering the same road hazard or the failure of one tire causing the failure of a second."

"Horse owners can greatly enhance their safety and the safety of their horses by carrying a second mounted spare," said Riss.

USRider recommends that only a qualified, trained mechanic change a tire. If, in an emergency, a non-qualified individual changes the tire, the vehicle should be taken to a qualified mechanic as soon as possible to ensure that the tire is properly torqued.

When purchasing a new trailer, it would be advisable to purchase a second spare mount. For existing trailers, visit a reputable trailer dealer to discuss options for mounting a second spare.

With an annual fee comparable to that of other roadside assistance programs, USRider offers the typical flat-tire repair, battery assistance and lockout services, plus towing up to 100 miles and roadside repairs for tow vehicles and trailers with horses, emergency stabling, veterinary referrals and more. For more information about the USRider Equestrian Motor Plan, visit www.usrider.org online or call (800) 844-1409.

World Equestrian Brands Debuts New Website

World Equestrian Brands, LLC, the United States distributor of Amerigo saddles and strap goods, Amerigo Vega saddles, Vespucci, E.A. Mattes and Equilibrium products, is pleased to announce the debut of their newly upgraded website. Chocked full of testimonials from riders, as well as a retailer locator, the website also offers World Equestrian Brand's complete catalog.

"Our newly redesigned website is really easy to use. I love the fact that it features a Retail Locator so people can find our dealer partners and our products in their area," said Robin Moore, owner of World Equestrian Brands, LLC.

Moore said World Equestrian Brand products have been embraced by riders of all disciplines and that shows up on the new website. "We have so many testimonials on the website and I think that really helps when a customer is looking for additional information or simply wants a second opinion," Moore said.

The entire catalog is also available on the upgraded website, and Moore is pleased to offer this extra convenience for their customers. "In our digital age people expect to be able to see all of our products on our website, so we have also added our entire catalog," she said.

Horse Laughs

10 Signs Your Dressage Test Needs Some Work

(Courtesy of Tack of the Day)

1. Under judges remarks the only comment is: "Nice plaits."
2. Your horse confuses the dressage arena boards for a caavaletto and exits at K.
3. Your 20 meter circle shape reminds the judge that she should buy eggs on her way home.
4. Your serpentine was perfect, except that it was supposed to be a straight entry on the center line.
5. Sitting trot has caused some of your fillings to come loose.
6. Your horse believes "free walk" means leaving the arena and heading towards the nearest patch of grass.
7. You work harder than your horse does in working trot.
8. During the salute, your inadvertently use your whip hand and your horse performs "airs above the ground".
9. Your horse's walk appears to be more "rare" than "medium."
10. Impulsion is improved only after the horse sees monsters in the decorative conifers near letters marking the dressage arena.

Meeting Minutes

March 21, 2011 • Metairie, LA

Board members in attendance: Lynn Quast, David Banister, Leslie Morris, Janel Martin, Nicole Landreneau, Christy Sanantonio, Carmen Hall, Elizabeth Cummins, Paula Gregory.

The meeting commenced at 7:02 p.m. The minutes were approved from the January meeting.

Treasurer's Report: Janel presented the Board with a current balance sheet. Lynn motioned to accept the Report. David seconded the motion and the Treasurer's Report was approved.

Dressage Chair: Leslie discussed the upcoming Pilates Night with Southern Bridle Magazine's fitness expert and contributor, Kerrie Ann Frey. The evening will be held at Bridles and Britches and is about how Pilates can improve the rider's biomechanics on the horse, complete with a mat workout. Afterwards, participants would dine on light fare and wine as they perused the latest fashions of the store. This event is limited to 15 participants and many members had already shown interest in attending.

Heather Blitz is scheduled to come to Stirling Farm in early August for a clinic. David mentioned that this highly anticipated clinic is nearing capacity so interested riders should submit their applications as soon as possible.

Leslie brainstormed potential vendors to be the official hospitality sponsors for the 2012 United States Dressage Federation Convention in New Orleans.

Eventing Chair: Elizabeth reported that the Fleur-de-Leap prize list had been emailed to all participants today. Board members would be responsible for setting up the Dressage arena at Lagniappe Farm on Thursday afternoon. The show is still in of volunteers and anyone interested should contact Lynn or Elizabeth.

Juniors Chair: Paula reported that the Juniors Show will be held at Amen Corner Farm on June 4th-5th this summer. Leslie Morris will be the judge.

Newsletter Chair: Nicole reported that the newsletter deadline is fast approaching and that the next installment of Off Course will be out to the members at the end of next month.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, May 23, 2011.

Respectfully submitted by Christy Sanantonio. ♣

New Prix Caprilli Tests

SEDA has developed a series of Prix Caprilli tests for Intro Level, Training Level and First Level for use at our local shows.

The intent of these tests is to provide both standardization and variety for show participants.

Copies of the tests are available for download on the SEDA web site.

HORSES

15 y/o, 15.2 chestnut Thoroughbred gelding; College bound owner; Schooling Second/shown Training—pops over small jumps; lovely manners; needs an experienced rider to achieve roundness; $3,000 negotiable to good home. Will consider lease-purchase. Contact lizziekenelly@yahoo.com for more info.

Brigadier is for sale! Dutch x TB medium frame, modern type, long legs 4-1/2 yo. 17hh. Athletic, catlike, light on his feet. Has been to two shows; calm, focused, well behaved due to his excellent character and confident start in life. Lots of fun. Dark bay with white, like his sire Contango. Suitable for an AA or YR due to his kind and gentle nature. Will make a good friend and willing partner. More info, pics and video at www.rosehillhanoverians.moonfruit.com or call Annie at (281) 433-8208 Houston, TX. He's just waiting for his special person – will it be you?
